

To Whom It May Concern;

I wanted to give a quick reference letter and speak on the behalf of Comedy Magician Rob Jenkins. He has performed for our church and Children's Pointe Christian Academy's Summer programs for the past two years and has done an exceptional job! I could not have been more pleased.

I have had "magic" performances in years past, but Rob's professionalism and his dedication to his work makes him top notch in my book. I can tell you that he makes extra special sure to let the children and young folks know up front that his show is a display of hard work and dedication to his art. He lets them know that he has no special powers and does not at any point assume he does. He explains very clearly that what he does is a career choice and a true profession just like a lawyer, doctor, politician, or mechanic.

His show is one of laughter, bewilderment, and amazement. I personally have sat in on both shows and they get better every year! I think the way he uses the children and audience participation pieces are extremely entertaining and I found myself laughing out loud several times. He also never disappoints as he pulls the rabbit out of the hat and also makes sure to involve his white dove "Bob" which all the children adore!

I would without a doubt give my endorsement for you to hire Comedy Magician Rob Jenkins for any event, even one for Church Events. He is a true "CROWD PLEASER!"
